

The ADA Title IV requires functionally equivalent TRS. Waiting ten minutes to place a VRS call is not functionally equivalent. At the present time, VRS has no requirement for answer time. The FCC should not renew the waiver for exempting answer speeds. The FCC should mandate provision of VRS as well as require answer speed.